Meston College of Education has been molding teachers since 1937 and has a clear vision and code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators and other staff members. Committee monitors code of conduct and ethics which the institution enshrines there by promoting the spirit of fellowship among students, teachers, administrators and other staff.

Educational Tours for students provide them with an opportunity to collaborate with teachers, and integrate new perspectives with informal environments to enhance learning initiatives.

ROLE OF THE EDUCATIONAL TOUR COMMITTEE

- To decide the places of visit and duration of the tour
- To book a train or bus and plan about the accommodation facilities.
- To plan the day-wise activities and course of action to enhance the overall learning.
- To enhance effective learning experiences and to preserve cultural and natural heritage.
- To acquire first-hand knowledge about different parts of our country.
- To learn more about new situations in an informal environment.
- To know more about organising and conducting tours.
